The Riehl Deal....

In 2015 Hopkins Insurance began partnering with Bob Riehl and his agency Riehl Insurance located in Badger, Iowa. This partnership provides our customers even more insurance company options, access to additional staff, assistance in complying with the affordable care act, several life insurance options, investment opportunities through our Registered Investment Advisor and 24/7 access to policy information via Client Portal.

Bob Riehl and Maureen Schaefer continue to serve customers in the Badger area, but customers may also call and get assistance from the Hopkins staff at any time. It has been a pleasure over the past year and a half working with Bob Riehl and his customers and we look forward to many more years of partnering together!
